

The Seneca Reunion and 75th Anniversary Celebration of Seneca School was a highly enjoyable event made possible by these many fine folk who gave their time and effort to it: Jack Southworth, MC; John McGhee, Diane Browning, Jina Carniglia, and Sam Seebart (Seneca School Foundation); Adele Cerny, Andrea Combs, Jan Curtis, Pete Walker, Garrett Carniglia, Christopher Gibson, Lacey Elliott, and Elle Rawlins (Seneca School); Andrea Officer (City of Seneca); George Walker and Jerry Nelson (Cook Shack); Shanna Northway and FFA students (barbecue); Tom Skeins (photos); Byron Haberly, Mark Cerny, and Bob Reed (porta-pots); JW and Carol Everitt, Tammy Cartner, and the Chamber of Commerce Room Tax Committee (support); Bev Curtis and Dodie Barott (registration); Steve and Sandi Martin (concert); Jennifer, Hailey, and Jessica Carter, Sam and Joy Lane, Sue Findlay, Linda Pace, BearCat Lodge, Wendy Whelan, Crown Ranch, Hair It Is!, City of Seneca, Skeins, Canyon Creek Candle Co., Just for Fun Photos, and Seneca's Jr. High class (PTA silent auction); and Joanne and Joe Phippen, Buzz and Bobbie Gilmore, Richard Schwartzer, Chris and Debbie Gibson, Bill and Brady Long, Judi Stimac, Bob and Carmen Turner, Daryl and Mary Carr, Darla Long, Nathan and Robert Wunz of Scout Troop 898, and the Izee Livestock Club (Jina and Garrett Carniglia; Dennis, Julie, and Jake Reynolds; Jolynn Bishop; Pete, Ross, and Reed Rawlins) for your help in setting up and cleaning up. I apologize if I have inadvertently left out a few names. On behalf of The Seneca School Foundation, I would like to thank all of you for your invaluable contributions.

Judith Beaudet Reed
Canyon City